

Mr Douglas Tribe – Chair of Trustees—appointed by Foundation Body or Sponsor

Appointed: 28 November 2016

Douglas has taught history, RE and geography for 34 years and served as Headteacher for the last 16 years; firstly in an urban 11-16 Comprehensive School before moving to an inner city 11-19 Community College. He has worked as an inspector for Humanities for Warwickshire. From 2001 to 2010 Douglas worked as a School Improvement Partner for the Department of Education on the Academies Programme as well as for Warwickshire. At the same time, he was a tutor and assessor to the National Professional Qualification for Headship (NPQH) programme. He also advised the Northern Ireland Education Board on setting up a Heads' assessment programme.

Douglas has chaired several Interim Executive Boards for both Primary and Secondary sectors. He has a strong commitment to the development of young people to ensure they are well equipped to take advantage of the opportunities life offers. He has a strong faith based in the Anglican tradition and wishes to ensure that St Gabriel's is clearly seen to have a sound faith identity which embraces all.

Reverend Steve Gold – Trust Governor—appointed by Academy Members

Appointed: 28 November 2016

Steve is one of the Church of England's ministers in the Parish of Hillmorton, which includes all of the Houlton development—and has particular responsibility for leading the emerging Church in Houlton. Steve lives and works in Houlton, and over the coming few years he will be seeking to help build community across all parts of the emerging Houlton development. As part of this he takes a close and active role in building relationships with the staff, parents and children at St Gabriel's.

Steve's professional background is in technology management and leadership—having had a wide number of senior roles in more than 20 years in technology and telecommunication company BT.

Mr Christopher Sawtell – Trust Governor—appointed by foundation body or sponsor

Appointed: 28 November 2016

Chris graduated from Nottingham University with a first-class master's degree in civil engineering , during which time he held an undergraduate sponsored position with Arup, providing his first hands on practical experience in engineering design and construction management. Eager to gain commercial financial experience, Chris spent five years working at PwC in their London Top Tier audit and assurance division where he qualified as a chartered accountant gaining experience as a field manager on several FTSE listed and smaller privately owned clients.

Chris joined Urban & Civic in 2011 as assistant to the Head of Finance with key responsibilities covering group financial reporting and analyst support on both existing and pipeline projects. In May 2014 alongside the Head of Finance Chris supported the successful reverse takeover of the AIM listed Terrence Hill Group plc and the simultaneous £170 million share placing on the London Stock Exchange.

Following the enlargement of the Urban & Civic group, Chris heads a property finance team providing business planning, funding and analysis support to Urban & Civic's project teams across the Group.
